Photo and audio from athlete André Candido de Lacerta. In 1994/1995, in a partnership with the Friends of People with Physical Disabilities Society-RJ (SADEF-RJ in Portuguese), Tijuca Tênis Clube (TTC) launched an Adapted Swimming project at its headquarters, thus becoming the first conventional social sports club to offer para-sports to its members and the community. Since then, the club has participated in the para-sport calendar, with an emphasis on swimming, boccia, and aquatic marathons, consolidating its place as a club that trains para-athletes nationally and internationally. The TTC has support from the CBC (Brazilian Club Committee) for training athletes, contracts, for the multidisciplinary technical committee, and for equipment.

Para Pan American Games in Guadalajara, 2011. “This competition was wonderful! There were rap, unity, and medals. My sport, which is Para-Weightlifting, is individual, but this medal is definitely the product of teamwork. After all, we don’t get to put it on by ourselves. My thanks to the whole team that helped me!” (Alexandre Gouvêa)

An example of how to overcome difficulties, Gabriele Pereira Terra Gomes was born with Down Syndrome and a very serious heart disease. The cardiologist in the maternity ward said that “If she lives until she’s 6 months old, she will have a 20% chance of surviving surgery”. She is now 17 years old, and she goes to school, dances and has been doing sports since she was a child. She collects medals from various competitions in Brazil. The last ones are from 2019, in the São Paulo School Paralympics, where she won 3 medals in swimming.

Titulo: SUPERINTENDENCY OF INCLUSIVE AND SOCIO-ATHLETIC ACTIONS

Conteúdo:

The Superintendency of Inclusive and Socio-athletic actions was created as the first of its kind, with the goal of including people with disabilities through the benefits obtained by practicing sports.

Due to the unique initiative from the current management of the State Office of Sports, Leisure, and Youth, the state of Rio de Janeiro can count on a technical team that is very high-quality and possesses a clinical eye focused on sports for people with disabilities, as well as all the guarantees of the best chances for those who had their lives limited by antiquated beliefs for so long.
